The Clothing Deal That Staggered Competition

We told you how we engineered the greatest purchase of clothing in the annais of New York. Well, it is accomplishing all we dared to anticipate. The crowds, the prices, the class of clothing and the timeliness of the sale are features such as no one has ever before seen equalled.

CLEVELAND ABANDONS TRIP.

GREENWICH, Conn., Nov. 14.—ExPresident Grover Cleveland's duck spooting trip with E. C. Benedict has apparently been postponed.

Mr. Gleveland was to go South with Mr. Benedict on the latter's yacht "Oneida," but yacht is to-day lying at Indian Harbor, near the Benedict residence, dismanifed and preparing to go into Winter quarters. The yacht has been lying there since Wednesday.

Many persons are wondering why Mr.
C.eveland's trip has been postponed.

MRS. ADDICKS FOR HILLIS. Wife of Senator May Name Husband of Old Friend as Her Husbrad's Colleague.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 14.—Mrs. J. Edward Addicks, wife of the National Committeeman, may choose a Senator from Delaware. Addicks will be one of the Senators and will have a great deal to do with the selection of his colleague. He is understood to have said that former Senator Anthony J. Higgins might do for his Senatorial colleague, but Mrs. Addicks is said to favor lliam S. Hillis. Mrs. Addicks has in a large measure been responsible for er husband's prominence in politics. Mrs. Hillis was Miss Florence Bayard, laughter of the late Thomas F. Bayard, and spent many Winters in Washington. Wisiens of a gay social season have litted across the mind of Mrs. Addicks and may be a potent factor in the action of the Legislature.
